

The Peach Lake Natural Area Update

Putnam County Land Trust: Save Open Spaces, Inc. May 1995

One hundred forty beautiful acres await you. Join us on June 3 for a free guided tour!

Learn to find your way around the three preserves of the Peach Lake Natural Area in Southeast: Birdwood, the Paul Fitchen Preserve, and the Cedar Swamp. Come for some or all of the day's events:

- ◆ 8:00 Birdwalk with Tom Morgan;
- ◆ 10:00 Cedar Swamp Bridge Opening;
- ◆ 11:00 Hike with Martin Brech;
- ◆ 12:30 Picnic at the Paul Fitchen Preserve;
- ◆ 1:30 Orienteering for Novices (Maps $2).

Rain date Sunday, June 4.

Discover what Putnam County Land Trust has to offer you and your family for your recreational needs and enjoyment of nature:

- ◆ Hiking trails;
- ◆ Canoe trips;
- ◆ Bird observation platform;
- ◆ 30 foot bridge across Peach Lake Brook;
- ◆ Orienteering/Natural Resource Map of the entire Peach Lake Natural Area and surrounding properties (See page 3);
- ◆ Natural Resource Inventory of the Peach Lake Natural Area;
- ◆ Guided walk books and brochures;
- ◆ Nature and recreational events.

Find out what you can do to help:

- ◆ Become a member;
- ◆ Participate in our events;
- ◆ Join our trail volunteers;
- ◆ Write grant proposals;
- ◆ Serve on a committee.

Join PCLT now and receive a FREE 4-color natural resource/orienteering map of the Peach Lake Natural Area.

